Chicago, Feb. 12, 1857.

L. S. Usher, et. al. vs. Victor B. Lyemonier, et. al.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

that in pursuance of a decretal order of the Cook County Court of Common Pleas in Chancery entered in the above entitled cause, on the 1st day of February, A. D. 1857, I, Norman Price, Master in Chancery of said County, Illinois shall on the 13th day of March A. D. 1857, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at the front door of the Court House in the City of Chicago, sell at Public Auction to the highest bidder for cash, all of the unexpired term created by a certain indenture of Lease from Alexander C. Cosby to the defendant, Julius H. Lyemonier, et. al. and others for a term of five years from the 10th day of March A. D. 1856, of all that parcel of ground described as the north fifty (50) feet on Clark street of the West twenty (20) feet of lot five (5) in Bronson's addition (?) to the original Town of Chicago, together with all the right and interest of the defendant Lyemonier in and to the said lease and the brick building and premises now standing thereon. The said interest will be sold as of unincumbered by the said parties, or may be leased except for the time above mentioned, as the Master may think best.

Dated this 12th day of February A. D. 1857.
